Aida Haile | IMpower Program Manager

Aida believes in our world's limitless capacity for prosperity, and as a strategic executive and entrepreneur, she lives her purpose working with business and community leaders to achieve their goals by engaging their teams and optimizing their resources. Her global journey includes senior leadership roles at Tupperware, developing leaders and positioning business for profitable growth. She is an excellent communicator with an approachable leadership style, who knows how to engage others in collaborative efforts for success.

Aida cherishes making community impact, frequently sharing her time and talents with organizations that advance opportunities through entrepreneurship, women's empowerment and youth development.

Aida holds a Bachelor of Arts from Bellarmine University with a double major in Business Administration and Accounting. She has had continuing development in Finance, Sales, Strategy, Leadership and Business Coaching. Aida is a former CFO and Regional Sales Vice President, with extensive Presentation and Leadership Training experience.

Affiliations include: WOMEN Unlimited: IMpower Program Manager 2019; LEAD Program Mentor 2009 & 2019 • Lake Nona Chamber of Commerce: Board Member & Program Director, 2019 • Junior Achievement of Central Florida; The Greatest Investment Girls' Empowerment Program: Mentor and Education Volunteer: 2017-Present • YMCA Dr. Phillips & Central Florida SBDC-2nd Stage Business Program: Advisory Board Member, 2018-Present • Leadership Orlando Alumni, 2017-Present • Boys and Girls Clubs of Central FL, Board Member & Executive Committee 2016-2017 • Associate Network about African Americans, Executive Sponsor, 2008–2017 • United Way Campaign, Co-Chair, 2008–2009 • Smart Girls, Mentor, 2009 • Tupperware Brands Cascade Leadership Program, Mentor, 2008 & 2012

Awards: President's 2013 Award of Excellence, Global Award as Top Regional Director • Maximum Profit Targets, 2003–2009 • Business Excellence Award, Tupperware US / Canada, 2007