

Anne Giovanoni

Vice President, Corporate Counsel
Legal

Alkermes, Inc.

Anne Giovanoni is Vice President, Corporate Counsel for Alkermes, a biotechnology company. Her organization provides legal support to a variety of departments throughout the company including research & development, clinical trials, supply chain, G&A and human resources. Her team also supports all contracting for the US entity. In addition, she has responsibilities for employment law, corporate governance and the Board of Directors. Prior to her current position, Anne held a number of positions in the legal department and began her career at Alkermes as a clinical project manager. She previously worked in variety of clinical trial roles at contract research organizations and hospitals. She established Alkermes' community service day, ALKS in Action and has led the project for over 11 years.

Anne is a member of the board of directors of Casa Myrna, Boston's largest provider of shelter and supportive services to survivors of domestic violence, and a member of the President's Council for The Dimock Center, an urban community health center. She is also a Corporator of Needham Bank. Anne serves on the gala committee for Steppin Out at The Dimock Center and the Night of Champions for the New York Road Runners. She has participated in over 25 marathons.

Anne received a BA in Biology from Smith College and a MS in Regulatory Affairs and Health Policy from the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Allied Health. She received her law degree (cum laude) from Suffolk University. In 2010, she was a Public Interest Leader with the Boston Bar Association.