

Jean M. Otte
Founder
WOMEN Unlimited, Inc.

Jean Otte is founder of WOMEN Unlimited, Inc., author of Changing the Corporate Landscape: A Woman's Guide to Cultivating Leadership Excellence and co-author of Women Are Changing the Corporate Landscape. WOMEN Unlimited, Inc. is a nationally recognized resource for cultivating leadership excellence. Fortune 1000 companies partner with WOMEN Unlimited, Inc. to identify and develop success strategies for high potential female leaders.

Prior to founding WOMEN Unlimited, Inc. in 1994, Jean was an officer and Corporate Vice President for National Car Rental System, Inc. During her 30 years in the corporate world, Jean held management positions with McDonald's, Gillette and The Bell System before joining National Car Rental in 1980.

As a past President of the Society of Consumer Affairs Professionals (SOCAP), she led an international organization designed to foster and maintain the integrity of business in consumer dealings. Jean was selected and received certification as an examiner for the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award in 1992.

Jean is frequently requested to give keynote presentations and conduct workshops for organizations and governmental agencies worldwide. She has been featured in Barron's, Business Week, Bloomberg News, CBS, CNN, CNBC, NBC, The Chicago Tribune, Fortune, Fast Co. Magazine, The New York Post, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal Report, and Working Woman and CIO Magazines, among others. She has been honored by Lifetime Television, the Committee for 200, the Y.W.C.A. and Girls Inc. in recognition for her efforts in helping women to cultivate leadership excellence.

A native of Great Britain, Jean immigrated to the U.S. after graduating from St. Julians College in Newport, Wales with a degree in elementary education.