

Jean Gallagher

Director of Regulatory and Business
Development for Global HR Operations

Walt Disney Company

Jean is currently in the role of Director of Regulatory and Business Development for Global HR Operations at the Walt Disney Company. Our team supports Disney employees around the globe, providing HR services.

In her career with the Walt Disney Company she has held several operational roles, including General Manager positions at ESPN Wide World of Sports, Disney Springs, Water Parks & Miniature Golf and resort hotels as well as support roles in Consumer Direct Sales, Lodging Line of Business, Recreation Line of Business and Human Resources/Organization Development.

Jean earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Hospitality Management and a Master's in Business Administration. She is involved in serving her community, currently serving on the board of New Hope for Kids, along with prior service as a board member for the QUEST Organization. She also serves on the Theme Park Advisory Board for the UCF Rosen College of Hospitality and has served as a board member for the World Waterpark Association.

She and her husband James have 3 children – Grace, Robert and Kate.