

Teresa (Tracy) Cinco-Abela

Vice President and Treasurer

Quest Diagnostics, Inc.

Ms. Cinco-Abela has responsibilities over all treasury activities, including capital planning, capital markets and funding, financial risk management, cash management and treasury operations. She is also the finance business partner of new business ventures that the company is pursuing. Prior to this current role, Ms. Cinco-Abela was the finance business partner for the Professional Lab Services business and Assistant Treasurer. She joined Quest Diagnostics in 2007.

Prior to joining Quest Diagnostics, Ms. Cinco-Abela was with General Motors and held variety of positions with increasing responsibilities at the New York Treasurer's Office, where she had extensive experience in capital planning, business development, overseas funding, foreign exchange and commodities, cash management and treasury operations.

Ms. Cinco-Abela holds a Masters of Business Administration from Northwestern University, Kellogg School of Management and an undergraduate degree in Psychology and Finance from De La Salle University in Manila, Philippines.