From Rosina Racioppi to Everyone: 10:43 AM your IDP is a work in progress. It will evolve and shift over this year

Your IDP creates a roadmap for how you work toward your Strategic Leadership Vision. It should shift over time

From Nancy to Everyone: 11:15 AM

can you repeat the questions plz

From Yanthe Cornelissen to Everyone: 11:23 AM

I dont think we have enough time in the break out rooms

we weren't able to give feedback and the last person couldn't say anything

From Arwa Humaid to Everyone: 11:24 AM only 3 people had the chance to talk, the rest 3 didn't

From Nancy to Everyone: 11:25 AM

suggestion: if we can't have enough time to share and receive feedback in break room, we could do this as one group and hear a couple of people and benefit from feedback and discussion.

From Elina.Silen to Everyone: 11:28 AM

I agree with what the others are saying. this would be more interactive

From Jihene Touil to Everyone: 11:31 AM

I liked the break room, Feedback tips :) and how to develop IDP

From Lea Kai to Everyone: 11:31 AM

I feel we are being too horizontal and not too vertical,

we should go deeper in each topic, especially the IDPs

Helpful: clarifications about statement of strategic vision. How to deal with feedback. Thank you, I notice this as well.

For tomorrow: looking forward to receiving guidance on how to interact with mentors.
