

We are pleased to announce the
New York LEAD # 48
2018 - 2019 Award Winners

Melissa Alton – Boehringer Ingelheim
Melissa Junkins – Deere & Company
Molly Krueger – Danfoss Power Solutions

Leadership in Action – Mentoring

This award is given to three LEAD participants, nominated by their peers, who were engaged in all aspects of the LEAD Program by sharing ideas and experiences, offering feedback, encouragement and challenging her peers to think differently.

Pascale Petit-Frere – Prudential Financial, Inc.

Leadership in Action – Education

This award is given to the participant who has gained clarity in her own abilities, values and influence, resulting in significant leadership growth by demonstrating the power of integrating the learning that took place in the 12-month LEAD program into her behavior to make the shift more strongly into leadership.

Stephanie Seugling -- TIAA

Leadership in Action – Networking

This award is given to the participant who has created or expanded a broad network of colleagues using the power of the WUI room and matrix teams, built crucial relationships internally in her organization and designed a network that serves her own growth as well as those around her.

Kimberly Johnson – The Bank of New York Mellon

Fortune Award

The Fortune award is given to the participant who has demonstrated the leadership qualities in all the three pillars of WOMEN Unlimited, Inc. - Mentoring, Education and Networking. This person has made a conscious shift from being a tactical manager to a truly strategic leader, gaining greater results for herself and for her organization.

Please join us in congratulating these participants on this achievement.

Thank you for your support during the past year!
